The image shows a screenshot of a mobile application named "WeCapacitate". The top left corner features the company's logo, "Wc", with a red upward-pointing arrow through the "c", and the tagline "LET YOUR BUSINESS INSPIRE THE WORLD". The top right corner displays the time "2:46". The main screen is titled "My Team" and includes several navigation tabs: ACTIVE, BUILDERS, SEARCH, KYC, DOWN, NOT ACTIVE, and UP. Below these are sections for CLUB (0), PROSPECTS (300), WA INVITE (1200), MESSAGES (2700), and LEVEL UP (4000). Further down are categories for ZERO, QUALIFIED, and CURRENT. A prominent white modal box in the center contains the heading "Claim" and the message "You are verified!". At the bottom of the modal is a blue "OK" button. The background of the app shows a list of team members with their names, last login dates, and activity counts.

Notes:

If PV is 0 (zero), the user is not at all purchasing. You can motive him to complete his/her PV to get a minimum payout.

If PV is equal to GPV. The user is purchasing and not developing a network. Explain him/her the advantages of the network.

If PV is very close to the next club level. Ask the user to make purchases to increase his/her level to get more benefits at higher club level.

More GPV better the cheque value.

If you want to increase your payout, increase your GPV by at least 20% of previous month.

Previous month you received a total bonus of Rs. 0 for the title you maintained Consultant.
You can increase your payout by just completing your personal purchase of at least *17*PV, taking the advantage of Loyalty Program for 12 months and getting 25% more benefit.
Reminding your team to do the same. Title progression is necessary.
Even if you increase your title, you will get a better pay cheque. I have noticed this in business,
